Erpenbach took a moment of privilege, on behalf of the City Council, to offer congratulations to Mike Sullivan, from the Sports Authority, on his retirement. Sullivan gave thanks to everyone for all that they have done for him and the Sports Authority.

Council Member Kermit Staggers inquired if the International Building Codes, which are on tonight's meeting, went through the Public Services Committee. Erpenbach said it went through citizen committees. Staggers said it was a concern and that it should go through City Council committees. He wondered if the items should be deferred tonight. Mike Cooper, Director of Planning and Building Services, said this is done every three years and does not go through a committee of the Council, because they do a very extensive public review process. Discussion followed.

Staggers said the snow gate issue is near the end of the meeting, on tonight's agenda; he asked if it could be moved up. Discussion followed.

Council Member Greg Jamison asked Anderson Jr. if the Public Services Committee discussed residents being in violation for the height of their trees, after Marion Road was widened. Jamison asked if there was any conversation about providing tree trimming services for arterial roads that have been redeveloped or rebuilt. Anderson Jr. said it was discussed and questions were forwarded to the Forestry Department. He said they will receive updates at the next Public Services Committee meeting.
